

GREEKS REPORT CAPTURE OF PORTO EDDA

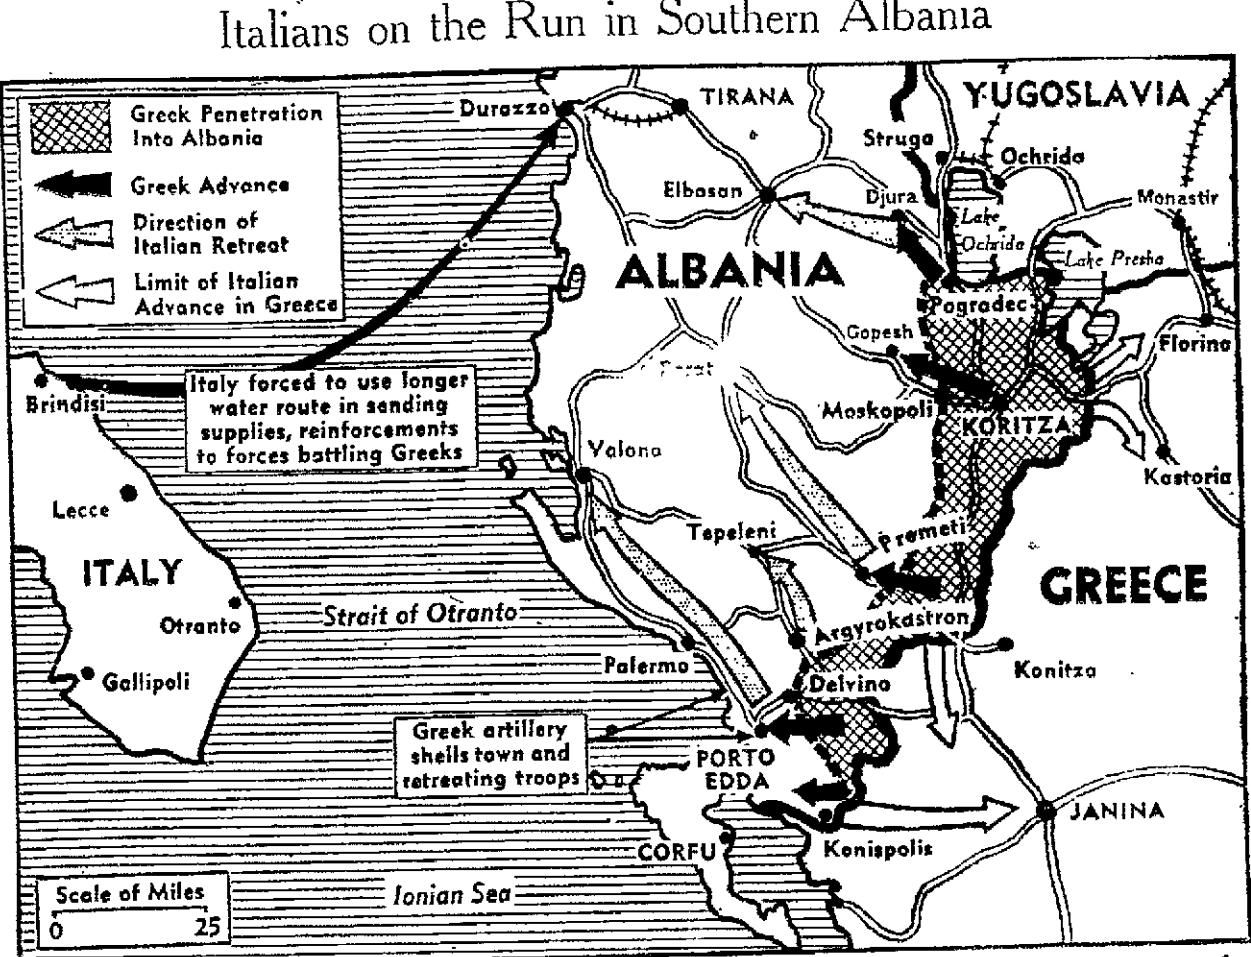

Resignation of Italian General Staff Chief Announced

FASCISTS CONTINUE RETREAT

Rome High Command Admits Defenders Are Hammering at Their Left Wing With Reinforcements Brought from the Frontier, But Insist Invading Troops Are Counter-Attacking; Torch Is Put to Many Albanian Towns

GERMAN ATTACK ON BRITAIN CONTINUES

By The Associated Press
The Greek army officially announced occupation of Porto Edda, Italy's important military entrance to Albania, today as Rome reported the resignation of Marshal Pietro Badoglio as chief of the Italian general staff.
Greek officials said the success at Porto Edda would be followed momentarily by the capture of Argirocastro, another important Fascist base, 15 miles northeast of Porto Edda.
Badoglio, Italy's famed soldier and successful commander in the Ethiopian campaign, was succeeded by 60-year-old General Ugo Cavallero, until recently commander of the Italian forces in East Africa.
The Italian announcement gave no explanation of Badoglio's resignation except that it was "at his own request," but British military circles were quick to express the opinion that he was "sacked" as a scapegoat for Fascist military reverses or "because he is opposed to the attitude of the party organization and the strictures of the army."
The Italian High Command admitted the Greeks were hammering at their left wing in Albania with reinforcements brought from other Greek frontiers, but said Italian troops were counter-attacking.
Conflicting reports came from London and Berlin of a naval engagement between two armed merchant cruisers yesterday in the south Atlantic, apparently in or near the American neutrality zone.
The German attack on Britain continued with a report from a south coast town in England, that waves of Nazi planes left many homeless after a three-hour raid with heavy bombs.

Italians on the Run in Southern Albania
Hard-hitting Greek mountain troops, supported by artillery, are hammering at Italian lines on four fronts in southern Albania, forcing retreat of Mussolini's troops up all highways. Map shows how close Greek drive on Porto Edda brings the war to heel of Italy's boot across 75-mile Strait of Otranto.

HOSPITAL PLAN ARGUED BEFORE HIGH TRIBUNAL

Philadelphia, Dec. 6.—(P)—The Philadelphia mint, like a lot of individuals, is having trouble making enough money.
The superintendent announced today that the big government money factory is working 24 hours a day, including Sundays, in an effort to meet the demand for coins, chiefly for defense taxes and vending machines.
The mint's daily output is 3,775,000 coins, about half of them pennies.

Pennsylvania Supreme Court Threatens to Postpone Hearing on Constitutionality of Legislation Because of "Unsatisfactory" Preparation

Philadelphia, Dec. 6.—(P)—The Pennsylvania Supreme Court threatened today to postpone arguments on the constitutionality of state legislation to take over the mental hospitals because of the "unsatisfactory" preparation by the commonwealth. Arguments finally were permitted to continue only after severe criticism by the court.
Chief Justice William I. Schaffer told Deputy Attorney General J. Woodward "I never heard such an unsatisfactory presentation," while Justice James B. Drew added: "I can't understand why in these important cases the commonwealth and other interested parties come in without any preparation."

NINTH VICTIM IN CHICAGO CRASH

Chicago, Dec. 6.—(P)—The toll of dead in the crash of a United States Air Lines plane was raised to nine today with the death of the ship's pretty stewardess, Miss Florence M. Little, 23.
Miss Little, a Chicagoan, had suffered a skull fracture and other internal injuries. The two other members of the crew, Capt. Philip C. Scott, 34, the pilot, and Co-pilot George S. Young, 30, were killed instantly in the accident which occurred Wednesday evening near the Chicago municipal airport.
Seven passengers, two of whom were injured, were taken to the hospital.

Hunter Is Held for Death of Companion

Bellefonte, Dec. 6.—(P)—Ralph Lee Woodring, 54, of Pittsburgh, was held in the Centric county jail today for lack of $500 bail in the fatal shooting of a hunting companion, Russell W. Dunlap, 45, also of Pittsburgh.
Dunlap died yesterday, several hours after he was shot while hunting for deer in the mountains near Port Matilda.
An inquest conducted by Coroner Charles Shecker found last night that Dunlap was shot accidentally by Woodring, in mistake for game. The coroner added the victim "had no red on him." He referred to red markings as an aid to visibility.

Traditional Quiet Returns to Famed Harvard Yard After Riotous "Aid Britain" Meeting

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 6.—(P)—Traditional quiet returned today to the famed Harvard yard where pickets of an "Aid Britain" meeting engaged counter-pickets last night in a battle of placard slogans, taunts and snowballs.
The meeting, in Emerson Hall, was sponsored by the Militant Aid to Britain committee, and was addressed by several Harvard faculty members.
The pickets, marshaled by the Harvard student union, which estimated their number at more than 150, including scores of girls, marched into the yard with placards reading "America's First War Rally," "Send Our Over-age Professor to Britain."
They were followed by a second—and rival—group of about 100 youths, singing "There'll Always Be An England" and led by a trio of an American and two British. This group's placards asserted: "Fascists Are Yellow," "Britain Forever."
Then came snouts, flying snowballs, occasional scuffles, and attempts to wrest away rival placards until the group dispersed.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO CAMPAIGN FUNDS LISTED

Harrisburg, Dec. 6.—(P)—The Republican state committee listed 45 donors of $1,000 or more to its 1940 campaign fund of $734,002, in a report to State Bureau of Elections.
The committee listed expenditures of $651,314. Earlier, the finance committee had reported receipts of $1,030,098, and expenses of $856,618 for the unsuccessful campaign.
The Democratic state committee reported receipts of $105,104 and expenses of $101,948. Both committee reports covered the spring primary as well as general elections.
Unpaid debts amounting to $176,412 were noted by the Republicans, of which the bulk was in loans by Joseph N. Pew, Jr.
Governor James was listed as having contributed $500.
Joseph P. Guffey reported he personally received $6,395 and spent $6,393 on his re-election campaign. His campaign committee reported $101,948.

Deanna Durbin Will Wed Young Producer

Hollywood, Dec. 6.—(P)—For Deanna Durbin, the girl who saved a studio, and Vaughn Paul, a young fellow whose ambition is to own one, it will be wedding bells next summer.
A year of speculation by gossip writers, who have reported them engaged and even married, was climaxed yesterday by the formal announcement from Deanna's mother, Mrs. James Durbin. Deanna delightfully showed friends a bright new diamond.
Since the young singing star began accepting unchaperoned dates two years ago, she has been seen at parties and pretexts with no one but Paul.
Both the actress, who was 19 two days ago, and the ambitious 25-year-old associate producer say it was "first love"—which incidentally was the title of one of Deanna's eight successful pictures. They met on the set of her first, "Three Smart Girls," four years ago.

DEATH PENALTY RECOMMENDED AT NORRISTOWN

Norristown, Dec. 6.—(P)—A jury has decreed that William J. Earnest must die in the electric chair for the brutal bludgeoning of Mrs. Ethel Atkins, once married to a member of the multi-millionaire Duke tobacco family.
Seven men and five women returned a first degree murder verdict, specifically recommending the death penalty, after deliberating almost five hours last night.
Earnest, who in a hysterical outburst on the witness stand, had cried, "I hit her. I hit her. I hit her again," partially collapsed as the verdict was read.
Sobbing, he listened while the jury was polled, and his counsel asked for and was granted the usual five days to present arguments for a new trial.
Mrs. Atkins was the divorced wife of John Cicero Angier, Baltimore, Md., resident. Her body was found in an unoccupied farmhouse.

Interest Is Increasing Rapidly In Dr. Polgar's Benefit Performance

Bellefonte, Dec. 6.—(P)—Centre county commissioners have asked the State Motor Police to recommend disposition of a $5,000 reward offered by Centric county for information leading to solution of the killing of Faye Gates.
Four claimants seek the money, asserting their clues resulted in the arrest of Richard Millinder, 22-year-old WPA worker, who was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for the slaying of the young match factory worker near her Mt. Eagle home May 5.
The four are Phil Dundering, who resides near the scene of the slaying; Joseph Tressel, Bellefonte, a former state trooper; Louis E. Heverly, Mt. Eagle; and Elmer Pownell, of Yarnell.
Tressel and Pownell claim they pointed out Millinder, while Heverly declared he should get the reward "because police interviewed him a number of times on a road where he worked with Millinder."

Premier General Ion Antonescu Decrees Drumhead Court Martial for Those Who "Rebel Against the Army" With Quick Execution to Follow Conviction, as Refugees Stream Into Hungary With Predictions of Open Clashes

NAZI ARMY IN COUNTRY TO BE STRENGTHENED

Maros Vasarhely, Hungary, Dec. 6.—(P)—Rumanian Premier General Ion Antonescu decreed a drumhead court martial today for Rumanians who "rebel against the army," with quick execution to follow conviction, according to reports reaching this border city.
The step, taken as refugees streamed into the city from Rumania with predictions that the army and the Iron Guard were approaching an open clash, was said to have been designed to strengthen the military in the event of such conflict.
The decree, it was reported, provides that judgment should be handed down within 24 hours and sentence carried out within 10 hours after judgment, without provision for appeal.
The government also was said to have forbade the display of flags on automobiles, which would make it impossible for the Iron Guard thus to display its emblem.
The refugees pictured Rumania as a land of continuing anarchy.
Antonescu, they said, apparently was unable to reconquer warring factions of the guard, which exacted bloody revenge last week for the slaying two years ago of their founder, Corneliu Zelea Codreanu, and had therefore determined to use the army in ruling the nation.
The refugees said there were heavy troop concentrations in strategic Rumanian cities. Bucharest dispatches reported the army had called a large number of reserves to the colors.
Germany, it was understood here, was backing Antonescu and reports said the German army already stationed in Rumanian oil fields was to be swelled by four new divisions (about 60,000 men).
The fleeing Rumanians said Hungary was a "land of no law."

MORGAN DISMISSAL IS UPHELD IN COURT

Cincinnati, Dec. 6.—(P)—The sixth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals today upheld dismissal of Arthur E. Morgan as chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority.
Morgan, president of Antioch College, Yellow Springs, O., was removed by President Roosevelt on March 23, 1938 for "contumacy." Previously, the educator had been at odds with fellow-members of the TVA board.
Morgan filed suit against the TVA and board members Harcourt A. Morgan and David E. Lillenthal, charging that his ouster was illegal and void and "could be accomplished only by concurrent action of the senate and house of representatives."

Capacity Crowd at the High School Auditorium Anticipated Next Wednesday Evening for Entertainment By Hypnotist

As the date for Dr. Franz J. Polgar's Eric engagement draws closer, interest in his appearance here is increasing rapidly and it is expected that there will be a capacity crowd at the high school auditorium on the evening of Wednesday, December 11.
Those who attend the performance will have an evening's entertainment they'll never forget.
For Dr. Polgar, a hypnotist and exponent of mental telepathy, is unquestionably the most perplexing individual on the American stage today.
In this case, his reputation precedes him to Warren. He has been the subject of articles in newspapers and periodicals throughout the land and has appeared on the more famous radio programs.
To obtain such unsolicited attention and publicity in this cynical county should give an individual credit.

BATTLE IN THE ATLANTIC VARY OF BRITAIN

Berlin and London Make Conflicting Reports of Engagement Between Two Armed Merchant Cruisers Northeast of Montevideo

CASUALTIES ADMITTED

Washington, Dec. 6.—(P)—Secretary Hull said today the State Department had not yet received any information about a reported battle between British and German armed ships in the South Atlantic yesterday and it was not known whether it occurred within the Pan-American neutrality belt which is patrolled by American naval vessels.

PREPARING SEVERAL STUDIES ON QUESTION

London, Dec. 6.—A fierce, long-range encounter between a German "Q-boat" disguised raider and the British armed merchant cruiser Carnarvon Castle in which the British ship suffered "slight damage" and the German was said to have been reported today by the Admiralty.
It was learned authoritatively the battle occurred in the south Atlantic approximately 700 miles northeast of Montevideo, Uruguay, where three British cruisers drove the German pocket battleship Admiral Graf Spee to self-destruction last December.
(This would be well within the American neutrality zone).
The Admiralty said only that the battle took place "somewhere in the South Atlantic." It acknowledged some casualties aboard the Carnarvon Castle, 22,122 tons.
It left open the question of damage to the opponent. "A fast and heavy blow," it was said.

REPUBLICANS IN SENATE SELECT GELTZ AS CHIEF

Harrisburg, Dec. 6.—(P)—A "freshman" senator with a ready grin and a ready answer will lead the Republican majority in the senate during the approaching politically-divided legislative session.
James A. Geltz of Allegheny who interrupted a law practice to run for the senate since 1938, finds himself today the choice of his 31 party colleagues to lead their "quarterback" through what may well be a see-saw session with each party in control of one branch.
Chosen with him was veteran Charles H. Ealy of Somerset, also a lawyer, for president pro tempore of the senate, the No. 1 seat usually reserved for "dean" in point of service.
Though the formal organization takes place on the opening day, January 7, yesterday's elections at a meeting in Hershey will prevail, barring emergencies.
Ealy, after 14 years in the senate, steps into the place vacated by Frederick T. Geller, of Susquehanna, who quit to make an unsuccessful bid for auditor general.
The quiet-voiced Somerset leader has held important committee posts in past sessions, and now must select the make-up of the powerful senate committees himself.
"Colleagues were willing to pre-empt the seat," he said.

GRIM ALCATRAZ SEETHES UNREST

San Francisco, Dec. 6.—(P)—Warden James A. Johnston and his corps of guards waited hopefully on fog-bound Alcatraz island today for a break in the weather to end their strained watchfulness over three hundred of the nation's worst criminals.
For two nights and a day ever since one of the year's heaviest fogs rolled in Wednesday, all of the convicts have been kept locked in their cells.
Authorities feared escape attempts or some possible violence among the inmates, keyed up by a convict killing and a prisoners' strike.
Although the general lock-up obviated any escapes such as the still unsolved 1937 disappearance of convict Ralph Roe and Ted Cole from Alcatraz during a heavy fog, the tension persisted.
Warren Johnston said sleep anywhere on the island was difficult.

Pennsylvania's Highway-Death Record for 1940 May Be One of the Highest in History

Harrisburg, Dec. 6.—(P)—up to December 3, the state has had 1,827 deaths from auto accidents, emphasizing the increase in cities and towns overbalanced a reduction in accidents outside municipal boundaries.
The federation corroborated this and declared that "only a sudden and complete reversal of current trends, coupled with intensive law enforcement and accident-prevention by municipal authorities can keep 1940 from being among the blackest pages in Pennsylvania's highway accident records."
In 1940 to date, there have been 976 fatalities in the rural areas and 851 in the cities and boroughs. This compares with 992 rural and 717 city in 1939.
The federation also pointed out that the state's highway death toll for 1940 may be "one of the worst" in the state's history, the Pennsylvania Motor Federation predicted today.
"On the basis of state and national trends thus far, the prospect is that Pennsylvania's final traffic fatality total for 1940 will reach or pass the 2,100 mark," the federation asserted in a statement.
"Only twice in the history of the state have traffic deaths reached that appalling total in 1936 when 2,411 persons were killed and in 1937 when 2,372 lost their lives."
Commissioner Lynn G. Adams of the state motor police said, that during the first 10 days of the year, the state's highway death toll was 10 to 32 degrees below normal.

"MOON OVER BURMA"

The infallibility of Paramount's prop department was put to the severest possible test recently when ten Hollywood glamour girls who don't give a hang for girth control were called to work in "Moon Over Burma," the new comedy-romance starring Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston and Preston Foster, due at Library Theatre Friday and Saturday. In the course of a three-month vacation the girls had added five tons at the waistline and their costumes didn't fit. The glamour girls concerned, as one might have assumed by now, happened to be elephants leased from the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus some months back in order to hold them in Hollywood for the picture. Their bed and board taken care of in advance, the animals had nothing to do for three months.

Second Service In Calvary Baptist Jubilee Devoted to Young People; Banquet Planned Saturday Evening

Calvary Baptist church was filled last evening for the second service in the golden jubilee observance, which started Wednesday evening and continues through Sunday.

This service, devoted to young people's activities, opened with a special jubilee song in unison, played by a former pastor, Rev. Martin A. Larson, of Wilmington, Del., and a choir selection, "Sing Unto the Lord a New Song" by George L. Schuler. A brief historical sketch of the Young People's Society and remarks were given by the vice president, Melvin Danielson, and greetings were extended by the Rev. G. K. Stark, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church. Miss Ruth Johnson, Mrs. Velma Swanson and Miss Elaine Haglund formed a ladies' trio which sang "Measures of God" by T. O. Chisholm.

Another former pastor, Rev. Axel Rendahl, of Sioux Falls, S. D., delivered the sermon, speaking from Psalm 103-12 and emphasizing the words "Bless the Lord, O My Soul." Written greetings were read by Carl Holmberg and Grant Samuelson, and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. John Bengtson, pastor of the Bethlehem Congregational church.

Flowers placed on the platform were in memory of Mrs. C. W. Elmquist and Mrs. Frank Peterson, from C. W. Elmquist, Mrs. Harold Hunter and Violet Peterson.

Besides Mr. Danielson, officers of the Young People's Society are Helmer Backstrom, Jr., president, Louis Gustafson, treasurer, Margaret Black, Mary Hamlin, Betty Johnson, Mrs. Velma Swanson, commissioneers. This society, organized June 30, 1892, with nine members, was reorganized in 1894 with the avowed purpose of working for a new church building, and again in April, 1900.

In line with the young people's activities has been the sending forth of seven missionaries and ministers in the 50 years of the church's history. They are: John Selander, in Assam, India, since November of 1921; Bengt Anderson, in the same field since 1924; Signa Erickson, now on furlough from the Philippines; Marvin Samuelson and his wife, Esther Swanson Samuelson, missionaries in Minnesota; Carl Holmberg, pastor of the North Isanti Baptist church, Minnesota; Grant Samuelson, student in Bethel Seminary.

In charge of the woman's session this afternoon, with a program and refreshments, were the Dorcas Missionary Society and the Philathea Class. The former unit, oldest auxiliary society of the church, was organized as a sewing circle less than three months after the church itself, March 18, 1892. Present officers are Mrs. Hannah Danielson, president; Mrs. Mabel Hamlin, vice president; Mrs. Flora Gustafson, secretary; Mrs. Edith Nelson, treasurer. The Philathea class was organized in 1914 and has been one of the very active and aggressive groups in looking after the best interests of the church and school. Mrs. Edith Haglund is its president.

Tonight is "Community and Conference Night" and there will be a special delegation from the Swedish Baptist church of Jamestown, N. Y., for the 7:30 o'clock service. It is expected that a number of pastors of the Middle East Conference will be present if weather and driving conditions permit. These will include Rev. George Magnuson, of Youngstown, O.; Miss Viola Lundmark, well known contralto soloist of the First Baptist church, will sing. Reservations totaling 150 have been made for the jubilee banquet to be served at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A. Miss Lundmark will sing, as will the Calvary Baptist Male Quartet, and there will be toasts and reminiscences on the program, for which the vice chairman of the parish, Henry F. Blick, will be toastmaster.

Assisting the jubilee committee are the following members of the banquet committee: Ellen J. Swanson, Inez Sheln, Janet Ahlgren, Mrs. Henry F. Blick and Mrs. Joseph Swanson also the flower committee Mrs. Betty Backstrom.

Mrs. Anna Lawson, Mrs. Carolina Rundquist and Mrs. Esther Shellen. One of the most active figures in the arranging and carrying out of this jubilee program has been Rev. Martin Hamlin, pastor, with the members of his family. To others of the church directory in this jubilee year goes a great deal of credit also.

Assisting Rev. Hamlin as parish pastor and moderator are Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Armstrong, ordained ministers in the service of the American Sunday School Union in Warren and Forest counties and members of the Calvary Baptist church since 1939.

Others include Henry F. Blick, vice moderator, Helmer A. Backstrom, secretary, Melvin Danielson, treasurer, Elmer Danielson, financial secretary, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, choir director, Margaret Blick, pianist, Clarence O. Swanson, Sunday school superintendent; H. A. Backstrom, Jr., Young People's Society president, Miss Hannah Danielson, Dorcas Missionary Society president, Miss Edith Haglund, Philathea Class president; Orville W. Albaugh, Good Fellowship Bible Class president, John Ahlgren, Oscar Lawson, P. E. Selander, B. E. Shellen, Henry F. Blick and Clarence O. Swanson, deacons; Mrs. Oscar Lawson, Mrs. B. E. Shellen, Mrs. Henry F. Blick, Mrs. N. E. Haglund, Janet Ahlgren and Mrs. Clarence O. Swanson, deaconesses; Arvid Danielson, Oscar Lawson and LeRoy Holmberg, trustees. John Ahlgren, steward of poor fund, James Holmberg, Janitor.

ON WAY HOME
William L. Shirer, who has been broadcasting almost continuously from Berlin for the CBS radio network since the war started, has reached Spain on his way back to the United States for a six weeks vacation, including Christmas. Harry Flannery and Joseph Anderson will handle the Berlin pickups in his absence, according to the Associated Press.

ATTEND CONFERENCE
Warren is represented at the Older Boys' Conference in Bradford by T. F. Eppley, boys' work secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. and two Hi-Y Club members, Joe Summerville, of the local club, and Virgil Johnson, of the North Warren group. The conference, sponsored by the state Y. M. C. A., opened this afternoon in Bradford and continues through Sunday. The principal speaker will be Cameron Beck, former personnel director of the New York Stock Exchange.

SERVE DRAFTED MEN
Lutheran churches in the United States are developing a comprehensive program for ministering to the men who are being conscripted, according to the Rev. Edward K. Rogers, of the First Lutheran church. During the past two months, about 40 Lutheran pastors have volunteered to serve as chaplains. Plans are also being made for spiritual ministrations through churches adjoining training camps, he said. Special literature for soldiers and chaplains is being printed at the present time. A special committee of the National Lutheran Council representing seven national Lutheran groups, is in charge of this work.

COVERING THE DEER HUNTING SEASON

All news gathering agencies including the Associated Press, which serves the Times-Mirror, have been making special efforts to provide complete coverage on important happenings in areas that are populated with deer hunters just now. As a matter of fact the open season on bucks and does, as was anticipated, is developing into one of the important stories of the year, probably because of the number of persons involved and the possibilities of sensational developments through hunters being killed and lost.

Early in the week when hunters were reported missing in the Cherry Grove area the wires were kept pretty hot between Warren and Pittsburgh in keeping with the policy of the Associated Press to be in a position to provide member papers with latest information regarding the progress of the searches which were under way.

The Kane Republican says that the Associated Press sent a wirephoto crew there to transmit pictures of the deer kill and skiers searching for lost nimrods.

W. C. Allen, photographer who covered the Corn-planter Reservation adoption ceremonies last summer, and W. J. Cruger, wirephoto technician, arrived on the hilltop with their equipment Tuesday night.

Their portable transmitter, it is explained, can be operated from a hotel room, using a telephone line to points being served. So fast do they operate they can have a photograph on the wire fifteen minutes after it is taken. Wet negatives and prints, developed in a portable dark room usually installed in the bath room of the hotel room, are used. An induction coil paralleling a similar coil in the telephone bell box is employed to place the impulses on the wire.

After photos are wired from the sending point the procedure is to first communicate with the AP bureau in Cleveland, which queries the 30-odd relay points over the nation to ascertain which want the photographs in question. Those remaining on the wire then place their receiving sets in tune with the transmission outfit.

Allen and Cruger, who cover Pennsylvania, West Virginia and eastern Ohio, with portable transmitter, have headquarters in Pittsburgh. They came to this area from Cadiz, Ohio, where they covered the mine disaster last week.

DECORATE FOR CHRISTMAS

It is good news to learn that the publicity committee of the Chamber of Commerce is conducting a home decorating and lighting contest during the holidays, and it is urgently hoped that there will be many competitors.

This is the season of light and joy, of happiness and hopefulness, and there is nothing that contributes more to the gaiety of the occasion than the general use of the ever-popular Christmas decorations with the generous use of greens and lights.

A coupon is appearing in the Times-Mirror for the convenience of those intending to compete. Don't delay in filling one out and sending it to the Chamber of Commerce for it must be delivered before the close of business on December 14th.

Already the Christmas spirit is in the air. One has only to visit the downtown section these nights to catch it. The borough was never more beautiful. Shining out into the clear, cold evening, against their background of snow, the Christmas lights bespeak the cheerful message of the Yuletide. One forgets the cold and the slippery streets in appreciation of the beauty of the season.

It'll make Warren's Christmas season the brightest and most cheerful ever by decorating your home.

The Bundles for Britain benefit at the North Warren Community House this evening offers entertainment of unusual type along with the opportunity to aid a deserving cause.

The size of some of the deer that are being brought out of the woods now would seem to indicate that the big bucks have become wise to the ways of the nimrods.

Doesn't it far you just a little to realize there are but sixteen shopping days until Christmas?

DOMESTIC NEEDS, BRITISH PURCHASES CAUSING SHORTAGE IN MERCHANT BOATS

Washington, Dec. 6.—Greatest activity in ship-building since the frantic Hog Island days of the last World War is now crowding all U. S. shipyards to capacity.

Although the law which keeps U. S. merchantmen out of war zones has pulled many vessels out of service on European runs, British purchases and the needs of the U. S. army and navy have more than made up the difference. And now Secretary Morgenthau has taken charge of a program aimed at making available to Britain all American merchant ships that can possibly be spared.

It isn't hard to figure what this will mean, when in some lines an actual shortage of boats is already being felt. For instance: Puerto Rican interests not long ago tried hard to get new vessels assigned to the run to the islands. They were informed that the army and navy had in recent months taken 47 vessels, and that there simply were no suitable extra boats to be had.

Maritime commission lists 25 private shipyards now in service, six of them representing new capacity. As of Nov. 1 there were under construction in these yards 176 ocean-going cargo ships of 1-462,000 total tonnage. No ways in any of these yards are empty (except for a few which are always held open for repair and reconditioning work) and Maritime Commission experts say that the industry is also working just about at capacity in regard to the number of skilled workers available.

In the face of all this, a huge British demand for cargo ships has to be met. During recent months the British have purchased a dozen tankers and 10 merchantmen, but these were for naval or troop-transport service. What is needed now is a large number of freighters and they're needed in a hurry.

The British purchasing mission now in this country hopes to get 60 or more 10,000-ton cargo vessels. Since the industry simply hasn't that capacity, and since there isn't anything like that number of up-to-date ships out of service, the understanding is that new shipyards will be built in the U. S. under British contract. They'll probably be placed on the west coast, Los Angeles and Tacoma being the spots generally mentioned.

Meanwhile, the U. S. merchant fleet will be in excellent shape to meet the needs of peace-time commerce, if and when peace returns. Although this fleet numbered about 1,500 vessels at the middle of this year, most of those vessels were tugs, barges, scows and small coastal craft. Only about 350 were ocean-going ships of 2000 tons or more.

Consequently, ships now on the way represent an increase of more than 50 per cent in the merchant fleet's effective ocean-going tonnage. Result will be, in a year or so, that the United States has the newest—and hence the swiftest and most economical—merchant fleet in the world.

All things considered, experts figure the fleet now built and building will be plenty big enough. Maritime Commission has standardized types for all new vessels. In theory, it would be fairly simple to have parts, plates, machinery, etc., made in quantity at various factories, the assembly job to be done at special emergency shipyards a la Hog Island in the last war.

STORIES IN STAMPS

Lyrebird Dances, Sings, But Refuses to Work

AUSTRALIA'S lyrebird, pictured on the stamp above, is one of nature's playboys. The male is noted for his mating dance, rarely observed by humans, for his excellent voice, which he heard a quarter of a mile, and for his brilliant plumage, resembling an ancient musical instrument, but he lets his mate do all the work.

The less attractive female builds the nest, hatches the egg and feeds the chick during the weeks it remains in the nest, without any help from the father.

The lyrebird's dance is performed in small circular clearings, made by the bird, in areas well screened by ferns and trees. The dancing takes place during winter. Even a slight noise will halt the exhibition, performed solely to attract the female.

The male provides his own vocal accompaniment for his dance. He is an accomplished mimic, reproduces the songs of other birds as well as noises he hears about him, adds his own variations and melodies. The finished aria would try the power and range of any human opera star.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday are the worst days for soot-fogs over the cities of England.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—For anyone who cares two whoops what is happening to United States farms and farmers, a fascinating piece of government literature recently rolled off the federal presses.

It is called by the unappetizing title of "Technology on the Farm"—but it is just about as full a survey of farm improvements and lack of improvements as the numerous bureaus of the Department of Agriculture could put together.

City folk (and I'm just like the next fellow who doesn't know a harrow from a combine) have fallen into the habit of saying that the farmer of today, with his electric lights, his radio, his telephone, the family jalopy, washing machines, hot and cold running water, indoor plumbing and a generous check from the government every year is sitting pretty on top of the haymow.

Now this is like a lot of statements that somebody who doesn't know what he's talking about picks up and passes along to other non-knowers until it gets to be truth and half breeze. At least that's the conclusion you'll have to come to if the agriculture department survey on farm technology is all facts.

Much To Be Done

THE farmer has come a long way from the ox-drawn wooden plow and harvesting sickle and flail, but when you get into this department report is how many of these "modern farm conveniences and luxuries" seem to be potentialities rather than realities so far as the modern farm home is concerned.

When the last general survey of farm income was made in 1935-36 (and no more accurate figure will be available until the Census Bureau comes through with its breakdown on farm population figures) about one-fourth of the farm families received direct relief or had incomes under $500; a little fewer than a fourth had incomes of $500 or more; and the remainder, slightly more than a half, had incomes from $500 to $1,000.

With an average of 4.5 persons to the family (one more than average in cities of more than 100,000), you can start your budgeting. Take out for stuff you have to have to be a "modern" farmer—a tractor, other improved tools and machinery, better seed, fertilizer, etc.—and see what's left.

for telephones, radio, weekly junkets to the village movie, and such.

Without Radios

IN A SURVEY made as recently as 1938, it was estimated that 40 per cent of the farm homes were without radios. The 1939 census showed that only 34 per cent of all farmers had telephones and the boys at agriculture think the percentage has changed little since then.

Although the electric light condition is spotted, there are many sections where the kerosene lamp is still a standard fixture. In the southeast section of the country, the survey showed that even among the better-off white operators with incomes of $1,000 to $1,250, only 4 per cent had electric lights.

Let's stay in this same comparatively well-off income bracket and take a swing through a few states and see what was reported as the percentages of farmers having mechanical refrigerators: California, 44; New Jersey, 36; Washington and Oregon, 11; Colorado, Montana and South Dakota, 7; Michigan and Wisconsin, 6; North and South Carolina, 5; Pennsylvania, Kansas and Ohio, 4; Georgia and Mississippi, 2; and Illinois and Iowa, 1.

The report shows that in the whole country only 16 per cent of farm families in the intermediate income group ($500 to $1,000) had water piped into their homes and only 10 per cent had indoor toilets.

There's Plenty To Do

THIS sort of summarizing could go on for a long time and include such items as 40 per cent of the counties in the United States have no registered general hospitals . . . and 80 per cent of the lower income farm families have inadequate diets. . . . But that's enough to give you a rough idea.

Of course, all of this isn't to minimize the work that has been done in modernizing the farm in the last 25 or 30 years. It's just to say that if the agriculture department boys have their figures right, it'll take a lot more years of technologicalizing to bring farm life generally up to even a bed of wilted roses.

P. O. RECEIPTS AT THREE-YEAR TOP IN OCTOBER

Receipts at the local post office during October amounted to $80,620, a three-year high for that month and 0.7 percent better than those of last October, according to the monthly business survey of the Pennsylvania State College.

From September to October, receipts made a 26 percent seasonal gain. Receipts for the first 10 months of 1940 were $544,098, or up 7 percent from those of last year in those months.

Three building permits were issued here in October and were valued at $12,200, a 54 percent rise over last year's volume in that month but a decline from that of two years ago. From September to October permits rose 45 percent. Permits for the first ten months of this year were $95,683, or 38 percent greater than those of 1939 in the same months.

New car and truck sales in Warren county for October were 111, a 52 percent expansion over those of last year in that period. Sales showed a seasonal gain of 127 percent from September to October. For the first ten months of 1940, sales totaled 1,173, a rise of 32 percent over the corresponding figure of last year.

Telephone service on November 1 were 5,064, a net increase of 158 stations in the past 12 months. During October no change took place in the number reported.

Factory employment for October in the Kane-Oil City area of 5 counties, which include Warren, was at the best October peak since 1937 and gained 5 percent over that of the previous October. From September to October employment showed a more-than-seasonal gain of 5 percent. Employment for the first 10 months of 1940 averaged 6 percent above that of 1939 in the same months.

Factory payrolls in October were also at a three-year peak for that month and increased 4 percent over those of the previous October. From September to October payrolls made a less-than-seasonal rise of 5 percent. Payrolls for the first 10 months of 1940 averaged 12 percent more than those of last year in the same period.

Aid to Refugees Is Given By Lutherans In Leading Cities

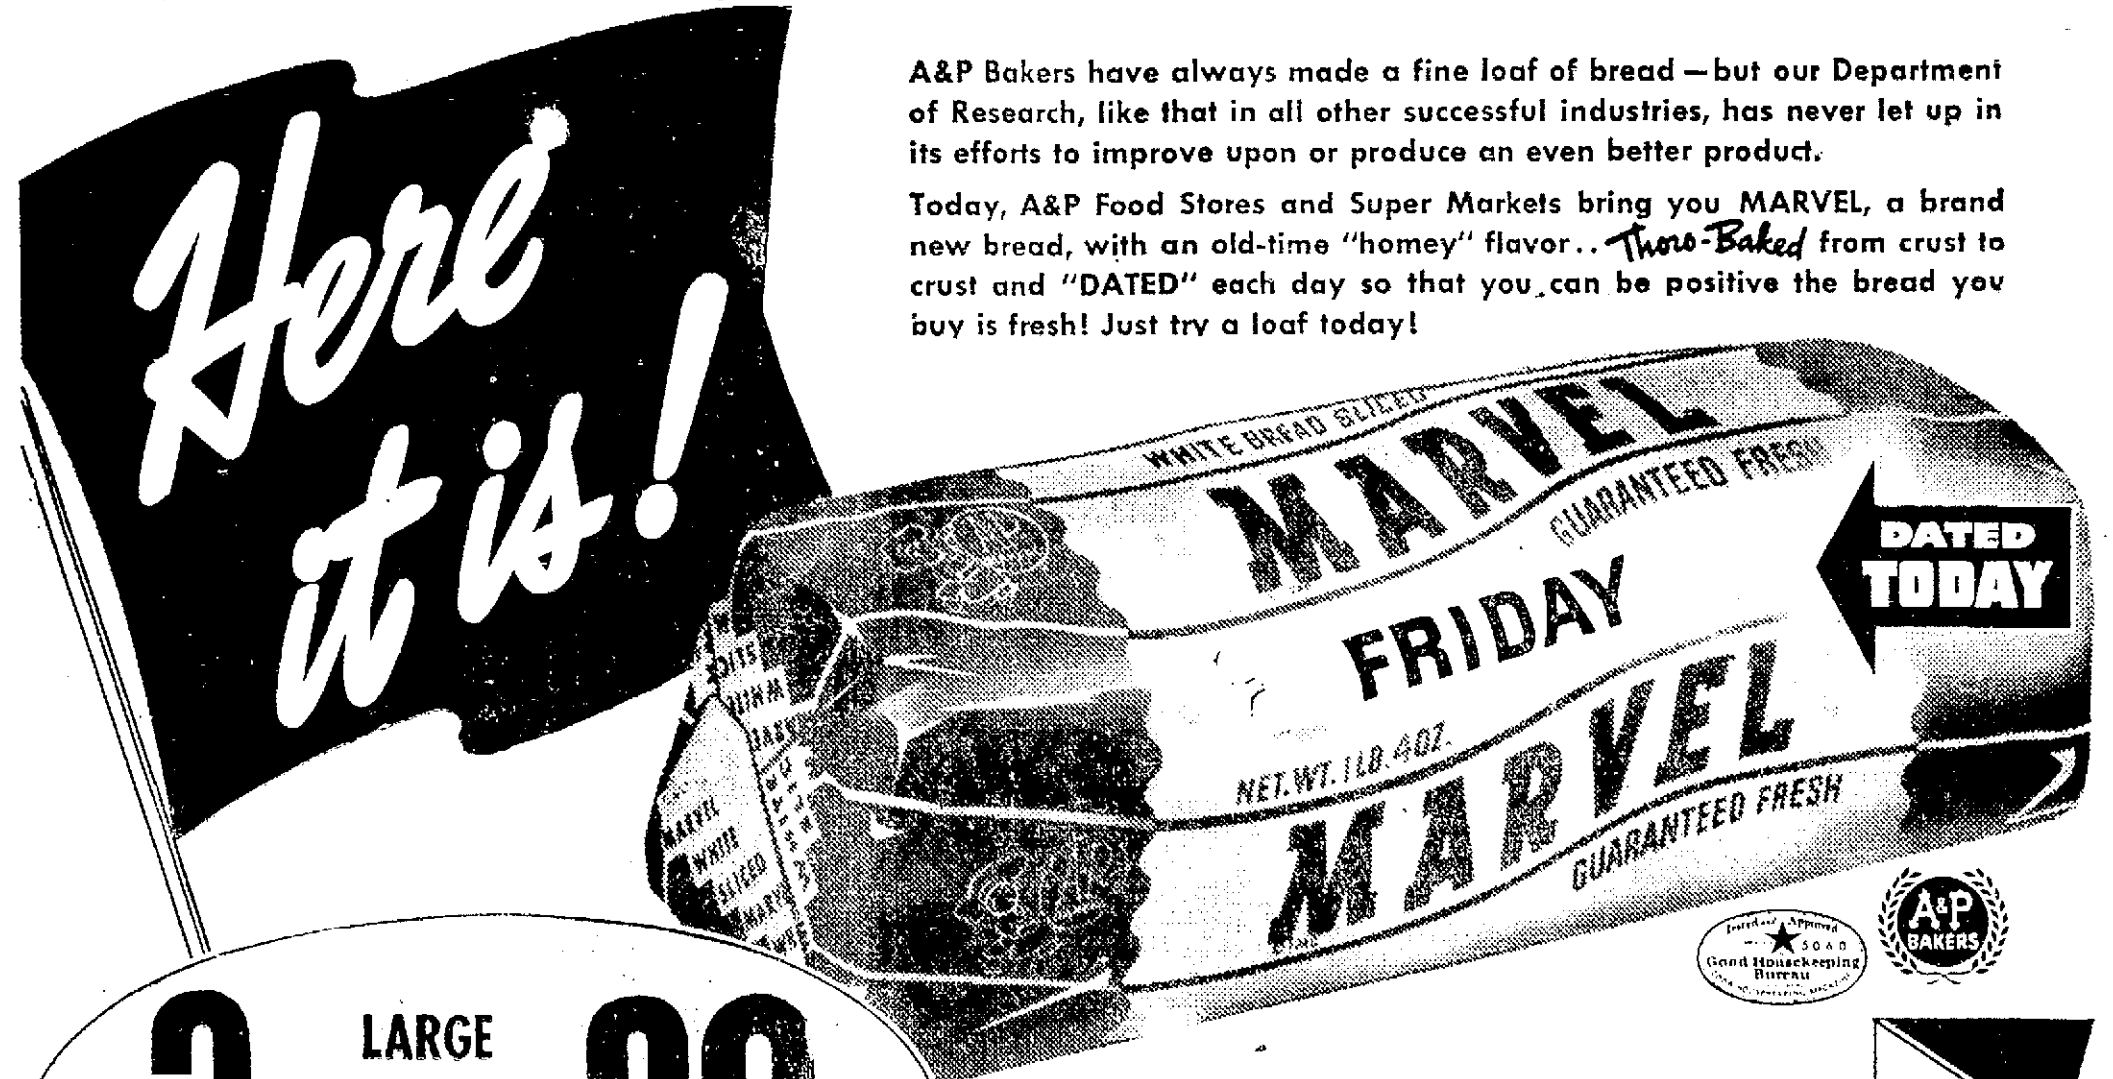

Lutherans have established 24 agencies in leading American cities to assist in the placement of Lutheran refugees, according to an announcement made yesterday by Rev. Edward K. Rogers of the First Lutheran church. This work is sponsored by the National Lutheran Council department of welfare in New York City, under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Clarence E. Krumholz.

In several large cities Lutheran welfare offices have assisted for some time in the placement of refugees, explained Mr. Rogers. The present move, however, is an effort to enlarge the present service and place it on a more permanent basis. Representatives in these various cities are being urged to cooperate in every way with local branches of the American Committee for Christian Refugees. While the organization has been set up to care primarily for Lutheran refugees, persons of other religious groups are rendered every assistance possible.

The purpose of the Lutheran service is to give all possible assistance to the refugees constantly arriving in the United States, and most particularly to establish contact between the refugees and local pastors and congregations. A large number have been assisted already in finding homes and work and the number is growing very fast.

In this district the Lutheran Inner Mission Society of Pittsburgh is the agency in charge of refugee assistance. A portion of a half million dollar fund now being raised for relief work growing out of the war will be used to aid refugees coming to our shores.

American Art Produces Christmas Cards Lovely Enough To Frame

Done by famous American artists, these Christmas cards are lovely enough to frame after the holidays. A typical American countryside scene is charmingly done in the water color at upper left, by Harold Denison. The newest type of religious card is shown in the center, above, painted by the noted artist Adolf Dehn. Below it is a chubby Santa Claus playing a bit of polo. The Santas on the smartest of this year's greeting cards invariably are shown being extremely active.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peterson and family, of Lakewood, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Swanson and Miss Mary Swanson, of Jamestown, N. Y., and Charles Swanson, Jr. The latter returned to his school work at State College Sunday.

Local hunters have been fortunate in bagging deer this week. Two ladies, Mrs. Hayden Nobbs and Miss Margaret Johnson, were among the fortunate ones.

Miss Margaret Hamilton returned Tuesday from Titusville, where she has spent several weeks with Fred Wales at the hospital.

Mrs. Clarence White and daughters, Audrey and Beatrice, have returned home after spending several days with relatives in Warren.

Chandlers Valley, Nov. 29. Friends will be sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Georgia Johnson, widow of Oscar Johnson, which occurred recently at the Old Ladies Home of Newville. Mrs. Johnson was a former resident of Patchen Hill. Those attending funeral services from this place were Mrs. Matilda Johnson, Mrs. Earl Johnson and family at Jamestown, Thursday.

Mrs. Amelia Patchen spent Thanksgiving with her grand daughter Mrs. Sherer Adams and Mr. Adams at Warren.

Harold Carlson and Arthur Engstrom, Jr., were recent business visitors at Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. John Larson and son, Carl, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson and family at Jamestown, Thursday.

Spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mahan at Landerv.

Sunday guests of Mrs. John Larson were Mr. and Mrs. Gunard Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Pauline Carlson and daughter, Maxine, of Jamestown, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and son, Arden, of Hatch Run.

Declarer: Mrs. Simon

One of the most enthusiastic players in St. Louis, Mo., is John E. Simon. Whenever I am in that city, it is always a great pleasure to visit his home and talk bridge with Mrs. Simon, who has been confined to her bed for the past three years. On my last trip, Mrs. Simon insisted upon being allowed to set up and play one rubber of bridge with Jack against Mrs. McKenney and me.

Both sides were vulnerable, and I never expected Mrs. Simon to make the psychic heart bid, which discouraged me from making the opening heart lead that would have defeated the contract. Of course Mrs. Simon followed her psychic heart bid with a nice play to make her contract.

The seven of spades was played from dummy on the opening lead. East played the nine and Mrs. Simon won with the ten. She cashed the five diamonds, discarding two hearts. I also let go hearts and Mrs. McKenney made the natural discards of the six of hearts and five of spades.

Now declarer led a heart from dummy, East cashed both top hearts, then led the king of spades. Mrs. Simon played low, and another spade lead forced the ace.

South led the nine of clubs. I covered with the jack. North the queen and East won. But on the forced return of a club, Mrs. Simon played East for the ten and so won the last two tricks.

BY WM. E. MCKENNEY America's Card Authority

Being outwitted by your opponent on a bridge hand is usually not pleasant. However, I think I had more fun and real pleasure out of today's hand than any I have played in a long time.

POPULAR DRESS SHOP MOVES INTO ATTRACTIVELY DECORATED STORE AT 326 PENNSYLVANIA AVE., WEST

Cole Hill

Many old and new friends of Jean Frocks are expected to attend the formal opening of the popular dress shop this evening at the newly remodeled store at 326 Pennsylvania avenue, west, formerly occupied by Johnson Brothers.

Jean Frocks was formerly located at 204 Liberty street.

Modern and attractive from the new front of structural glass to its tastefully decorated interior, Jean Frocks retains its place among Warren's most beautiful retail establishments, and will delight visitors at the formal opening tonight and shoppers from tomorrow morning on.

Besides Mrs. Nancy C. Hofer, manager, connected with Jean Frocks since the store was opened in Warren September 11, 1933, and Mrs. Goldie Swander, assistant manager, who has been associated with the store nearly seven years, a number of supervisors and officials from other stores and the home office in New York City will be present to greet the store's many friends. These include L. H. Gluck, general manager of Jean Frocks stores, Mrs. Gluck, personnel director, Mrs. Miller and Miss Haynes, of Ohio stores, and Miss Smyth and Miss McNerney, of other Pennsylvania stores.

The store front is of structural glass in maroon and buff, with spacious windows of 16 feet in depth. The windows are fluorescently illuminated, adding to the attractive color scheme of flesh and white on the walls and ceiling and the mulberry carpeting. The interior, 15 feet wide, and 55 feet in depth, has a color scheme of flesh and white similar to that of the windows, and mulberry has been carried out in the composition flooring.

The showcases, of the most modern design, are blue, trimmed with silver metal and extend along both walls. In addition, merchandise is tastefully displayed in higher fixtures in the rear of the store and fixtures for showing accessories have been placed in the center.

Each lady visiting the store during the opening will be presented with a rose.

General Manager Gluck today issued a special invitation to local friends of Jean Frocks to visit the home offices of the company at any time. The offices are located at 519 Eighth avenue, New York City, and Warren's store is one of a chain of twenty-five stores.

WHERE THEY SHOP

The census bureau lists the average number of visitors of various types of stores in the United States as: Grocery store, 449; butcher shop, 1341; department store, 10,490; and five-and-ten, 18,012.

HEAVY FOREIGN INVESTMENT

The United States government has approximately $13,000,000 invested in land and buildings in foreign countries. Original value of the furniture in these buildings is about $600,000.

... just a word about ourselves

... seven short years ago in the city of Warren the JEAN Shop opened its doors winning almost instant distinction and success as a fashion leader — since many new JEAN Shops have been added to our group.

This growth has been made possible only thru the continued patronage of our friends whose most critical and exacting demands for fashion correctness we have pleased.

And now we welcome you and all Warren to our newest JEAN Shop—a shop dedicated to maintain the highest ideals of business ethics and to maintain and exceed if possible the distinction and prestige that have won the JEAN Shops a high niche in the world of Fashion and smart economy.

Classical League Is Preparing Program At the High School

The Junior Classical League, which consists of the Latin clubs of Beatty and the high school, will present a Christmas program next Tuesday evening, December 10, at 8:15 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

The program will include an initiation ceremony, a Christmas play based on the Roman Saturnalia, and a dramatization of the Christmas story based on the Latin Vulgate, all accompanied by Christmas carols sung in Latin.

The a cappella choir of the high school will sing two Latin hymns, and an orchestra made up of pupils of the Latin classes will play at the beginning of the program. There is no charge for this pre-holiday program and everyone interested is welcome.

Social Events

MRS. MILLER HAS STUDENTS' RECITAL

Mrs. S. W. Miller presented her piano pupils in a very pleasing recital last evening at the home of Miss Betty Allinger, Oak street, many relatives and friends of the young people and instructor providing a capacity crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Haight, of Youngsville, played several beautiful Hawaiian songs on electrical guitars and the following pupils participated in the program: Ruth Freeborough, Alice and Dorothy McCunkin, Betty Allinger, Priscilla Zerbe, Jean and Evelyn Anderson, Ruth Dunkle, Kathryn Kondak, Doris Danielson and Suzanne Lesser. Mrs. Miller sang one of her own compositions, written this past summer and named "My Lily of Grace". Her piano accompaniment was played by Ruth Freeborough.

Mrs. Miller received many compliments for the marked advancement of her students and was told it was the best recital she had yet presented.

SUCCESSFUL DANCE FOR GUARD UNIT

Reports from the benefit dance held last evening at the state armory building for the Conemaugh mess fund indicate that the affair was a highly successful one. Complete sales reports have not yet been turned in and will be announced later, but it is believed that the amount taken in will total several hundred dollars.

The sponsoring units, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion and Reserve Officers Association, together with the boys of the company, ask that the Times-Mirror extend their thanks to the merchants, business men and many friends for their splendid cooperation in insuring the party's success.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR SATURDAY BRIDE

A miscellaneous shower party was given last evening at the home of Miss Marian Olson to honor Miss Treva Snow, who is to be the bride of Loren F. Carlson tomorrow. Prizes for a pleasant evening of games went to Mrs. David Thompson, for high, and to Miss Snow for low.

The bride-elect was showered with lovely gifts from the following: Helen Schwanke, Bertha Minelli, Mrs. Kenneth Williams, Mrs. Kate Ellinger, Mrs. Kate Lingo, Mrs. David Thompson, Mrs. Elmer Taft, Miss Debra Hill, Miss Josephine Tremblay and the hostess.

JUNIOR CHOIRS ASKED TO REHEARSE

Members of all junior choirs in the community are asked to attend the special rehearsal at the First Baptist church at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The practice session is in preparation for the special young people's candlelight Christmas carol service to be held in the Baptist church at five o'clock Sunday afternoon.

In addition to the selections by the massed junior choirs, Rev. James A. Davidson, pastor, will show movies of his travels in foreign lands. The church has extended a cordial invitation to all young people of the community to attend this service.

RENDAMLS ARRIVE

Rev. and Mrs. Axel Rendahl and two children, Stanley and Evangeline, of Sioux Falls, S. D., arrived yesterday afternoon to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, 25 Jefferson avenue, during the jubilee celebration at the Calvary Baptist church.

Rev. Rendahl, a former pastor of the Swedish Baptist church in Erie, preached there Wednesday evening before returning here to another former pastorate.

CHRISTMAS BOOKS AT FIRST LUTHERAN

The annual Christmas display of books, pictures and other articles of the non-profit First Lutheran Book Store may be seen in the church office any week-day morning and after the Sunday morning services. The exhibit is arranged in the interests of those who wish to make purchases of Christmas gifts of a religious nature.

DANCING CLASSES

Mrs. Harriet Wilkins, East street, reminds pupils of her dancing classes that tomorrow's sessions will be held at ten and eleven o'clock in the morning at the Philomel Club because of the Social Science Section meeting at the clubhouse in the evening.

WOMEN OF MOOSE

The local chapter of Women of the Moose is serving a "plate" supper in the lodge rooms tomorrow evening, from five until seven o'clock, for the benefit of the Mooseheart Alumni. Mrs. Hilda Anderson and Mrs. Esther White are the committee in charge.

KNITTERS REMINDED TO COME FOR WOOL

Those who wish to knit for the Red Cross are again reminded that they should call at the Metzger-Wright Company store to secure their supply of wools. Hours when the Red Cross headquarters there are open are from one until five daily, excepting Saturday.

VISITING DAUGHTER

Mrs. H. W. Conaror, West Fifth avenue, left last evening for New York, where she will spend a few days. She will be joined there by her daughter, Miss Eleanor, who is a student at Kent Place School in Summit, N. J.

HOME FROM VIRGINIA

Bonds Nos. 12 and 13	Jan. 1, 1948
Bonds Nos. 14 and 15	Jan. 1, 1949
Bonds Nos. 16 and 17	Jan. 1, 1950
Bonds Nos. 18 and 19	Jan. 1, 1951

Bids should be addressed to the School Directors of the School District of Columbus Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania, and should be enclosed in a plain envelope marked "Proposal for Bonds," and will be received up to 10:00 o'clock A. M. on the 24th day of December, 1940. Bids must be accompanied by a certified check, or reasonable equivalent in the sole discretion of the School Directors of the School District of Columbus Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania, for 2% of the par value of the amount of bonds bid for, made payable to the Treasurer of the School District of Columbus Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania. These bonds, when issued, will be subject to the favorable legal opinion of Messrs. Brooks, Curts & Sillin, Erie, Pennsylvania. These bonds are sold subject to the approval of the Department of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Little Theatres In Christmas Meeting Section Plan Plays Of Dramatic Group

Try-outs were held last evening for parts in the new Jamestown Little Theatre production, "Night Must Fall," scheduled to open January 16 and close January 24. The play, selected by Dr. Morris L. Bowman, Betty Field and Robert C. Wilson, is a tense murder melodrama by Emyln Williams in direct contrast with the last offering, "Of These I Sing," Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell appeared in the movie version of the story.

Announcement has also been received here that "The Guardsmen," comedy by Ferenc Molnar, will be given at the Erie Playhouse during the next two weeks, with curtain nightly at 8:30 o'clock.

One of the play's highlights will be introduction of a new star, Miss Betty Pentland, young actress from St. Louis, Mo. Others in the cast will include Jack Lewis, Elsbeth Hofmann, Jimmy Hines, Patricia Stevens and Max Ellis, all members of the professional company.

When the Oil City Little Theatre opened its new clubrooms recently in the rooms formerly occupied by the Ivy Club, it was to present three performances of Clare Boothe's "Marnie for the Moon," given here this fall by the Warren Players Club.

The Christmas meeting of the High School Dramatic Club was held Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium. Following a short business session, a program that was in keeping with the Christmas spirit was presented.

A Christmas talk, making members realize what the season should mean to each, was given by Harry Conroy, followed by a mystifying magical act by Hudson Grotzinger and Charles Trantier. "Resolved That All Underclassmen Should Be Taught That There Is a Santa Claus" was the topic for a humorous debate argued by Anne Wogel, Jean Morrison, Dick Johnson and Melvin Greenwald.

Then Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus appeared and read some letters from members of the club. To conclude, Christmas carols were sung, led by Betty Edinger and accompanied by Lois E. Johnson.

LITERATURE DEPT. OF WOMAN'S CLUB
Monday afternoon's meeting of the Woman's Club, the last before the holiday season, will be that of the literature department, starting at 2:30 o'clock. A book review will be presented by Mrs. R. S. Dawson and the social committee will serve tea. Mrs. Norman Williams, Sheffield contralto, will sing Christmas selections, with accompaniments played by Miss Benson.

This week's meeting of the club was prefaced by a luncheon honoring new members and their sponsors, with about 80 in all attending. For the program, Alden O. Carlson, florist, talked in an entertaining and informative manner on "Artistic Flower Arrangement."

EVENING PARTY AT HOLY REDEEMER
A tureen supper was held in the Holy Redeemer church last Wednesday evening, when women of the parish and their husbands gathered for a very enjoyable evening.

Prizes in auction bridge were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. George Betts and Mrs. Harvey Davis; in five hundred, to Miss Margaret McNally and P. B. Reynolds for high scores and to Mrs. Bert Sexton and Marcus Giltman for second. Other game prizes were won by Mrs. DeAngelo, Mrs. Marcus Giltman, Joseph Gleese and Sam Kerr.

PHILOMEL MEETING AND CHRISTMAS PAPER
Following a brief business meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Philomel Club, Mrs. Allie Russell, president, presented Miss Florence Bassett, who gave a very interesting paper on Christmas carols and music pertaining to the holiday.

Members were reminded that the annual Christmas program next week, the last before the holidays, will start promptly at two o'clock. The high school a cappella choir, directed by Carroll A. Fowler, will provide the program and members are especially urged to be on time.

TRUTH SEEKERS' CHRISTMAS MEETING
The Truth Seekers' Class of the First Presbyterian church will hold its Christmas meeting with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kitchen on December 12, instead of the regularly scheduled date. The usual program will be followed, members to contact the president or secretary for further information.

STUDENT LEAVES

STARBRICK UNIT HOLDS MEETING

The December meeting of the Starbrick P. T. A. was held at the school building Thursday evening. During the business session, it was decided to buy Christmas candy for the children and two lovely pictures, to be placed in the school, were purchased.

T. F. Eppley, boys' work secretary at the Y. M. C. A., was then presented in a very interesting talk on "How to Win Friends and Influence People". Later, a nice lunch was served by the committee.

RECORD SEASON IS ANTICIPATED AT POST OFFICE

An official of the Warren post office stated this morning that "the local office is making preparations to handle the largest volume of Christmas mail that has passed through the office in several years."

"The upswing in business in all sections of the country forecasts an unusually heavy holiday trade throughout the United States with its resulting increase of from 200 to 300 percent in the number of letters and parcels that the post office must receive, dispatch and deliver without congestion or delay," it was stated. "To accomplish this task with a maximum of efficiency and a minimum of complaint, it is necessary that we have the cooperation of the public."

Patrons can do much to facilitate the safe and speedy delivery of their Christmas packages and greetings if they will observe the following suggestions, offered by the Post Office Department:

Mail early—All holiday mail should be in the post office from 5 to 10 days (depending upon distance of destination) before Christmas. There will be no delivery, except specials, on Christmas Day. Packages may be marked "Do Not Open Before Christmas."

Wrap and pack securely—Use strong paper and twine. Reinforce all packages containing breakable articles and mark package "Fragile." Place no writing in package except holiday greetings. A written message subjects your packages to postage at the first class rate of 3 cents per ounce. Do not seal parcel.

Address all mail plainly—On one side only use full name, street number, post office box or rural delivery route. Place return address in the upper left hand corner.

Anticipate your postage needs—Buy stamps now, early in the month, and avoid last minute rush and crowds.

Insure all packages—The cost is small, the protection against loss and disappointment great. "If it is worth sending it's worth insuring." Value to $5—5 cents; not exceeding $25—10 cents. Small valuable articles should be sealed and sent registered mail.

OBITUARY

FLEET W. RAY
Sheffield, Dec. 6—Funeral services will be held at one o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Borden Funeral Home for Fleet W. Ray, former employee of the South Penn Oil Company. Rev. Ivan E. Russell, pastor of the Sheffield Methodist church, will officiate and burial will take place in the Oakland cemetery at Warren.

Mr. Ray passed away at three o'clock Thursday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Weller, at Henry's Mill, having suffered a stroke on Tuesday. He had been a lifelong oil field worker and retired not long ago after serving the South Penn Oil Company for 35 years.

He leaves his wife, Jennie, also of Henry's Mill; three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Sara Fornoff, Mrs. Eva Kirkland, Miss Mary Ray and J. D. Ray, all of Oil City.

TIMES TOPICS

NAME IS OMITTED
The Times-Mirror has been asked to announce that the name of Candyland was unintentionally omitted yesterday in the account of merchants generously donating prizes to the Presbyterian church "sample fair" this evening.

GARAGE FIRE
The fire department was called to the garage of the Warren Wholesale Company on Fourth avenue, near Pine street, last night at 10:12 o'clock to extinguish a fire in a window casing, caused by a stove which had been placed too close to the wall. Damage was confined to the window casing. On Wednesday evening the Department was called to the Clarence O'Neill residence, 611 East street, to extinguish a chimney fire.

TO FACE CHARGES
Mayo I. Peterson, of Little Valley, N. Y., who was in court here about a year ago and pleaded guilty to charges of passing worthless checks, will be arraigned in the county tomorrow on a similar charge. Peterson will also face charges of violating his parole from this county. The New York state man allegedly bought cattle from a Sugar Grove resident and paid with a bad check. Deputy Sheriff Linder went to Little Valley today to take Peterson into custody.

Sheffield, Dec. 6—Funeral services will be held at one o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Borden Funeral Home for Fleet W. Ray, former employee of the South Penn Oil Company. Rev. Ivan E. Russell, pastor of the Sheffield Methodist church, will officiate and burial will take place in the Oakland cemetery at Warren.

Mr. Ray passed away at three o'clock Thursday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Weller, at Henry's Mill, having suffered a stroke on Tuesday. He had been a lifelong oil field worker and retired not long ago after serving the South Penn Oil Company for 35 years.

He leaves his wife, Jennie, also of Henry's Mill; three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Sara Fornoff, Mrs. Eva Kirkland, Miss Mary Ray and J. D. Ray, all of Oil City.

MISS JENNIE E. THOMAS
Funeral services in memory of Miss Jennie E. Thomas, 126 Cone-wagon avenue, were held from her home at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, conducted by Dr. T. T. Colley, pastor of the First Methodist church. Interment was made in Oakland cemetery, with the following acting as bearers: R. Pierson Eaton, Herbert G. Eaton, Richard Mason, E. W. Smiley, C. C. Winans and C. B. Campbell.

Those who came from out of town to attend the services included Mrs. Gertrude Hansen, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Allie Barton, Youngsville; Mrs. Melba White and daughter, of Sugar Grove; Warren Mahan and son, of Lander; Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Mahan, North Warren; Lawrence Homer, Miss Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mead and sons and Willard Mead, Yankee Bush.

MRS. LENA M. SCHMERTZ
Mrs. Burt Woodruff, of Pleasant township, has received word that her aunt, Mrs. Lena Meyer Schmertz, wife of Louis Schmertz, Sr., of East McKeesport, passed away at her home Thursday afternoon after a lingering illness.

Funeral services in her memory will be held at the family home in East McKeesport Saturday afternoon and the body will be brought to Warren Sunday afternoon for burial in Oakland cemetery.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Schmertz is survived by several nieces and nephews.

POMONA GRANGE OFFICERS ARE NEWLY ELECTED

Leo Johnson, well known member of Brokenstraw Grange at Youngsville, will head Warren County Pomona Grange, No. 10, in the next two years, having been installed as master at yesterday's session of the Pomona quarterly, held in the local I. O. O. F. hall.

Others elected for the period and installed on Thursday by National Gatekeeper Lloyd W. Wilcox were as follows:

Overseer: Merle Schweitzer; Warren; Price, Lottsville; chaplain, Mrs. Mary Wells, Akeley; steward, Mr. Carter, Lottsville; assistant steward, K. Holt, Akeley; lady assistant steward, Miss Pierce, Watson; Pomona, Mrs. Ruth Crooks, Corydon; Ceres, Mrs. Lyons, Farmington; Flora, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, Warren; treasurer, Curtis Armstrong, Warren; secretary, Mrs. Martha Houghwot, Farmington; member of executive committee, David VanOrsdale, Farmington; pianist, Mrs. Peck, Warren.

A complete report of the two-day sessions will be published later.

GUARDSMAN IS BADLY INJURED IN FALL HERE

Injured in a fall down a flight of stairs at the State Armory, Hickory street, about 12:30 o'clock this morning, Sgt. George Lynch, 22, of Tidoute, is in the Warren General Hospital with a severe concussion of the brain and a possible skull fracture.

Sgt. Lynch, who is on 24-hour duty at the armory as caretaker, was standing in the corridor on the first floor when he decided to lean against the door leading to the basement, thinking it was closed. However, the door was unlatched and swung open, causing him to fall the full length of the stairs and strike his head on the concrete floor.

At the hospital this morning it was stated that his condition is only fair.

The accident occurred near the close of the dance which was given for the benefit of the Company "I" mess fund by local veterans organizations.

Who Killed Aunt Maggie?
By MEDORA FIELD

YESTERDAY: Lieutenant Gregory of the Atlanta police is questioning everybody who was in Sally and Bill's handsome old country house at the time Aunt Maggie was murdered, and finding out very little. Now Sally herself has two negroes in the dining room, and learns from Linda that Eph, son of Linda's husband by a former marriage, has been prowling about the house the day before. Sally thinks she may have the clue Lieutenant Gregory wants, and continues to question Linda.

Chapter 26
Telephone Wire
"A BOB what time was Ephraim over here?" I asked.
"He come home about three, Miss Sally," said Linda. "He come over here just a little while after."
"But why should he come here if he knew you were somewhere else?" I asked Thomas.
"Miss Sally, Eph want somebody phone for the doctor man, that what I think. But I guess he don't find nobody."
"You are sure of the time?" I asked Linda.
"Yes, 'cause I take that short cut through the woods to go to my aunt's house and it was after four when I get there."
Ephraim's no doubt, solved the mysterious footsteps in the kitchen and the door that slammed when I was upstairs. I did not want to jump to conclusions, but it did occur to me that while Lieutenant Gregory was conducting his investigation in the office I was probably solving the murder, much less formally, in the dining room.
"Thomas, why didn't you tell me about this when I talked to you this morning?" I asked.
"Miss Sally, ma'am, I ain't know till Linda tell me this morning that Eph been over here. Anyways, he never come back here last night, Miss Sally. I was in the room who time that. But Miss Sally, that man I tell you about seen' here yesterday, I forgot to tell you he had a long knife in his hand and he was lookin' all around the house like he want to cut somebody's throat."

It seemed to me that I could follow Thomas's train of thought perfectly, but I asked him to describe the bloodthirsty-looking visitor.
"He was a big tall man with a black mustache, Miss Sally. Well, the black mustache clinched the matter. Thomas was merely concocting a smoke screen. 'Why didn't you tell me this to begin with?' I asked.
"I scared my mind, Miss Sally. But Ephraim, he ain't had nothin' to do with makin' no trouble over here, Miss Sally. Eph ain't no bad boy."
"Did the doctor ever come?"
"Strange that Dr. Grace should pass so near the house and not drop in, and on such a night, too. 'Well, he come. That young doctor man what help Dr. Grace. He been here before when my misery was bad.' Thomas explained. 'He say Eph done got in—'
"In what?"
"Well, Miss Sally, seems like he got cut in a fight. And the place it ain't got well yet. The doctor man say it in—'
"Infected? Well, how is he today?"
"The doctor man say to keep him in bed. He still just layin' there with a high fever and don't know nobody."
"What time did the doctor come last night?"
"I don't rightly remember, Miss Sally. It was kind of late. All the time I worry about Eph and think maybe no doctor not get here at all on account all that rain. But finally, here he come."
"Did you tell the police about Ephraim, Thomas?"
"No. They never ask me nothing about Eph. They just want to know where Linda is or anybody else that suppose to be 'round here. Well, Eph ain't suppose to be 'round here. Leastwise, he don't what you'd say live here, Miss Sally."
"All right, but from now on I think it would be best if we all tell the police everything we know. And, Thomas, don't try telling them more than you know. Don't go making up stories about men with black mustaches and long knives, because they will be sure to catch up with you and then they won't believe anything you say."
"I am goin' to tell 'em the truth," said Linda, giving Thomas a scornful look.

Enter Bessie
I KNEW exactly what I was going to do when the door swung shut behind them. I would telephone Dr. Grace, learn the name of his assistant and check on the time he visited Ephraim last night. That would either give Ephraim an alibi or place him at the head of the list of suspects.
But with my hand on the doorknob, I was halted by Bessie, who evidently had been waiting for Thomas and Linda to finish their interview.
She came over close, looked around in all directions and whispered, "I done found a clue, Miss Sally."
"What do you mean, clue?" I asked, Thomas and Ephraim still on my mind.
"It's somethin' I found," she went on cautiously. "You know this mornin' when I was makin' up the beds and cleanin' up the bathrooms, with Thomas to help me 'cause Andrew went to town and then was busy when he come back—"
"Yes, yes, Bessie, what is it?"
"Well, we finish all the rooms, 'cept Miss Eve's and she still in there, but she say I can come in and straighten up. And, Miss Sally, I found somethin' ain't got no business in there, else I'm crazy."
"But what is it?"
"Didn't that man what come to fix the phone say it done been cut in two places and a piece of wire throwed away?"
"Yes, he did say something like that."
Bessie opened her mouth, seemed to be struck speechless by some thought that hit her all of a sudden, and turning, made a waddling dash for the door. Completely mystified, I started to follow, but at that moment the library door opened and Alice wandered in. "I'm looking for Plutarch," she explained. "He was up in my room just after breakfast and now I can't find him."
"He'll show up," I consoled her. "You can't lose a cat, you know. Here comes Bessie. Maybe she knows something about him."
"I give him his breakfast in the office," Bessie told us as calmly as though she had not apparently had had a fit two minutes before. "I set a good breakfast and drunk his water, too. I shut him up in there when I come out and I ain't seen him since."
"Well, of course, the police are using that room now," I reminded Alice. "He's probably upstairs."
"I've been up there. Poor thing, he's probably scared to death. I'll go and see if somebody left the basement door open." And she wandered out again.
"What in the world happened to you just now?" I asked Bessie sternly.
She looked puzzled for a moment, then her face cleared. "Oh, Miss Sally," she grinned. "I just remember my Sally Lunn muffins in the oven. But they all right. Just a little brown. I don't know what come over me, puttin' them muffins in the stove 'fore you all was at the table."
"But what was all this about a clue?"

The Wire
BESSIE looked around the room again, then her voice dropped to a whisper. "Miss Sally, you reckon Miss Eve kill Miss Maggie?"
"What on earth makes you ask that?"
Bessie reached into her apron pocket and pulled out a piece of telephone wire about half a yard long.
"Where did you get it?"
"In Miss Eve's room, all hid away."
"What do you mean, hid away?"
"Well, you might just as well say hid away, Miss Sally. When I empty the wastebasket, I notice they was a pair of stockin's in there. Miss Eve had throwed 'em away 'cause they was a run in 'em and then I see this package. Looks like she would have give me them stockin's without throwin' 'em away, don't you think so, Miss Sally?" Bessie interrupted herself to ask indignantly. The fact that she weighs about a hundred pounds more than Eve and that her feet must be several sizes larger had nothing to do with her feeling in the matter.
"Perhaps she didn't think they were worth offering to you," I placated. "What about this package? Was it in the wastebasket, too?"
"Yes'm. It and some cotton and them tissues you take cream off with. And then I see this package wasn't just some paper wadded up like I first think. So I unwrapped it and find that piece of wire. Well, bless sweet Jesus, I say, what for Miss Eve got this old piece of wire? Then I remember about the telephone."
"Where were you when you unwrapped this package, Bessie?"
"In the back hall, where I take the wastebasket to empty it in the big one to bring downstairs so Andrew can take it to the furnace."
"Then nobody saw you unwrap it?"
"No, ma'am."
"You are sure you didn't find it in the big wastebasket after you emptied the small one? You are sure it came from Miss Eve's room?"
"Yes'm. Miss Sally, I see it when I pick up them stockin's. I ain't goin' to run no risk gettin' them tore no worse by emptyin' 'em in the big wastebasket."
"All right. Don't say anything about this until I've had time to talk to Mr. Bill."
The telephone rang and I said I would answer it. At Wisteria Hall my grandmother had only the one phone and that in the hall closet. It was the old-fashioned box-on-the-wall variety and the piece of wire obviously had been reaching up from the floor to the box. As I took down the receiver, I hung the loose piece of wire over the telephone.
Someone who introduced himself as Jamieson said he thought I might be interested to know that on Saturday at around eleven o'clock a man in a convertible coupe had inquired at his garage in Roswell the direction to take in order to get to Wisteria Hall. Mr. Jamieson said he thought nothing of it at the time.

LOCAL KNIGHTS HOLD MEMORIAL FOR DEPARTED
Last evening at the rooms of Warren Council, K. of C., was held memorial services in commemoration of the deceased members, who have passed to the great beyond since 1935. The service was very largely attended and the impressive and interesting ritual and program was a befitting tribute to the deceased members.
Those who took part in the ritual were Grand Knight J. T. Valone, Deputy Grand Knight Richard Harrison, Chancellor A. Klein, Warden, C. E. Bonavia, Recorder, Robert Haben and Chaplain Rev. Father M. E. Dailey.
An address befitting the occasion was delivered by Alred Herkert, of Jamestown, and the eulogy for each deceased member was beautifully given by Bernard J. Flohr, a past grand knight and chancellor of the council.
The program was interspersed with music by the choir and group singing and a solo by Robert Daye.
At the conclusion of the memorial service, adjournment was made to the second floor, where the routine business for the semi-monthly meeting was transacted.
Next Wednesday evening, the knights and their ladies, the members of the Catholic Daughters of America and their escorts will hold a tureen supper in the hall of the organization. Other social events planned are a venison dinner preceding the next regular meeting, Thursday evening, December 19, and another of the popular dances during the holiday season.
Leo Corkery, district deputy of the sixth district, and his brother, James Corkery, of Jamestown, were out of town members in attendance.

Giants Give Cardinals $50,000 For Pitcher Bob Bowman

Rumor Terry Seeking Leiber, Passeau And Cincinnati's Moore

Atlanta, Dec. 6.—(P)—Don't think Larry MacPhail's Flatbush Frolics are going unnoticed in Manhattan.

Brooklyn's president caught the spotlight here at the 39th annual minor league convention when he opened his Dodge moneybags for player talent. But today it was the New York Giants' turn to rattle the blue chips.

The Giants dropped an estimated $50,000 in the bucket to buy Pitcher Bob Bowman from the St. Louis Cardinals—and Giant officials hinted Manager Bill Terry was down to the shirt-sleeve stage on a couple of other sizeable deals.

While Terry remained unresponsive in his hotel room, lobby speculation was pegged on two possibilities:

1. That the Giants would seek to send Catcher Harry Danning to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for Outfielder Hank Leiber and a pitcher—possibly Claude Passeau.

2. That the Giants would swap infielder Nick Witek for Cincinnati's fastball pitcher, Whitey Moore.

There was no indication that either deal would materialize, and some sources predicted Terry would take no final action until the major league conclave in Chicago next week.

The Giants completed two deals early today with minor league clubs. One sends Pitcher Harold (Hy) Vandenberg to Rochester of the International League in what may have been an outgrowth of New York's trading with the Cardinals.

In the other deal the Giants sent both Outfielder John Dickshot and Pitcher Roy Joiner from their Jersey City farm to Hollywood of the Pacific Coast League for option on Joe Hoover, a shortstop, who will remain at Hollywood during the 1941 season.

Brooklyn, which gave Catcher Gus Mancuso, a rookie pitcher and better than $65,000 cash for Catcher Mickey Owen of the Cardinals, was said to still in a dickering mood but with no immediate trade on the fire.

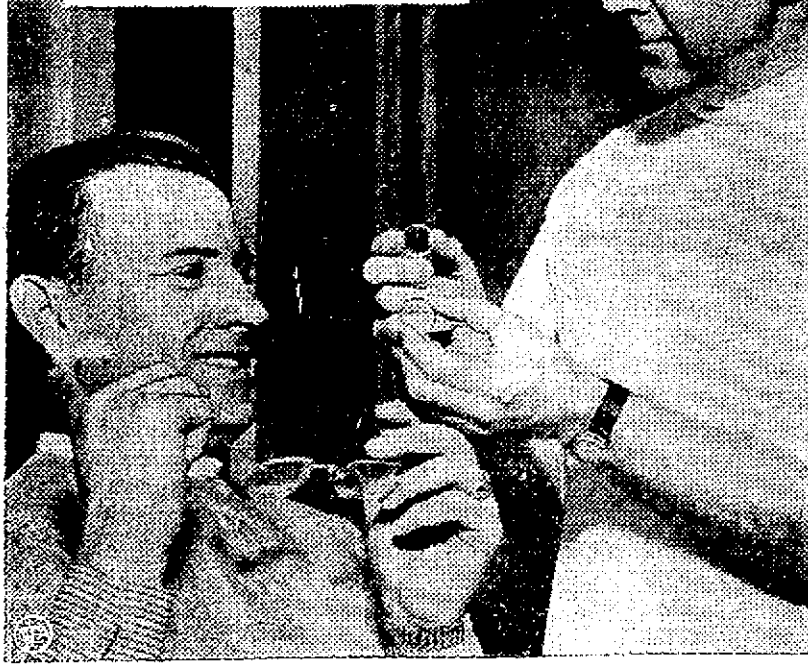

In the American League the only trade talk came from the direction of the Washington Senators who were rumored mildly interested in Pitcher Cletus (Boots) Poffenberger, eccentric former Dodger who won 26 games for Nashville in the Southern Association last summer.

The minor leaguers meanwhile wound up their three-day session today and left to their executive committee the task of picking next year's meeting place. Six cities are bidding—Jacksonville and Miami Beach Fla.; Toledo Ohio; San Antonio Texas; Oakland and San Francisco Calif.

Last night the convention heard Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis in one of his infrequent addresses. Landis refrained from talk of business, charging baseball men only with the responsibility of preserving "respectability and integrity" of the game during the trying period of war.

Pitching Help?

Dizzy Trout hopes contact glasses will help his pitching for Detroit Tigers next season. Here Dr. Ewing Adams tells him how to fit them under lids, in contact with eyeballs.

Famous Brother Act Split Up As Pirates Release Paul Waner

Pittsburgh, Dec. 6.—(P)—Baseball's most famous pair of brothers—Paul and Lloyd Waner—has been split up, temporarily at least, and that made sad news in Pittsburgh today.

Announcement in Atlanta, Ga., that the Pirates had released Paul came as no great surprise, but both as so popular that it would be hard to find a fan in the city who did not regret it.

Paul, as well as the fans, realized the years were creeping up on his 37 and Lloyd 34—and that youngsters like Bob Elliott, Maurice Van Robays and Vince DiMaggio finally had grabbed off the outfield jobs the Waners held so long.

Lloyd, known among followers as "Little Poison," still is with the Pirates, but now being the second oldest member of the squad. Both brothers have played only for the Pirates since entering the major leagues.

Paul came here 15 years ago from San Francisco of the Pacific Coast league. At once a successful slugger, in his second year he batted .380 to lead the National League and win its "most valuable player" award. He captured the batting championship again in 1934 and 1936. Paul's lifetime mark of .335 stamps him as one of the consistent great hitters of his time. He played in 2,151 games in the big show, collecting 2,868 hits, scoring 1,492 runs and knocking in 1,177.

The Kinbergers five threw a fourteen-karat four point win on the left side of their won and lost ledger last night at the expense of the Times-Mirror and strengthened their grip on first place in the Elks Loyal Knights League. The second place New Process team did likewise with Harvey & Carey and the Hultmans stayed in third despite the fact that they dropped a trio to the Darling Jewlers. Beckley's legions clipped the Cochran Barbers for three in the fourth match.

Frank Willard's 226 was the only Honor Roll game and Lloyd Rapp took high total with 561.

Although the league-leading National Forgers were tripped for three points by the West Ridge, Rich's Atlantic Station was humbled for the same number by the Newell Press. Olson & Bjers took advantage of the top two teams' defeats by snaring three from the Sherwood Refinery. O. K. Service took a trio from the County News and moved into a fourth-place deadlock with the News and the West Ridge. Hollister hit 213 for high game and Check's 594 was best total.

Sports Round-up

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, Dec. 6.—Lowdown on that Kreevich-Cramer mix-up at Atlanta was that Jimmy Dykes was ribbing, but Joe Cronin and Eddie Collins were serious. Collins is burned up. Jimmy Phelan of Washington says Stanford can turn any team it invites to the Rose Bowl—including Minnesota. Joe Louis will train in a New York gym for the first time when he begins work for Red Burman. Previously he always has gone to New Jersey or nearby tight camps. Looks like the Sugar Bowl teams will clean up about $75,000 apiece—which ain't bad, boys, but fresh green lettuce.

Same Old Story. Our research department has been at it again. It has discovered that the Smiths had it all over the Browns, Whites, etc., on major college elevens. There were 23 Smiths, 13 Browns, six Whites, five Greens, two Grays, one Blue and one Black. P. S. Also, there were two Smythes, both at Amherst.

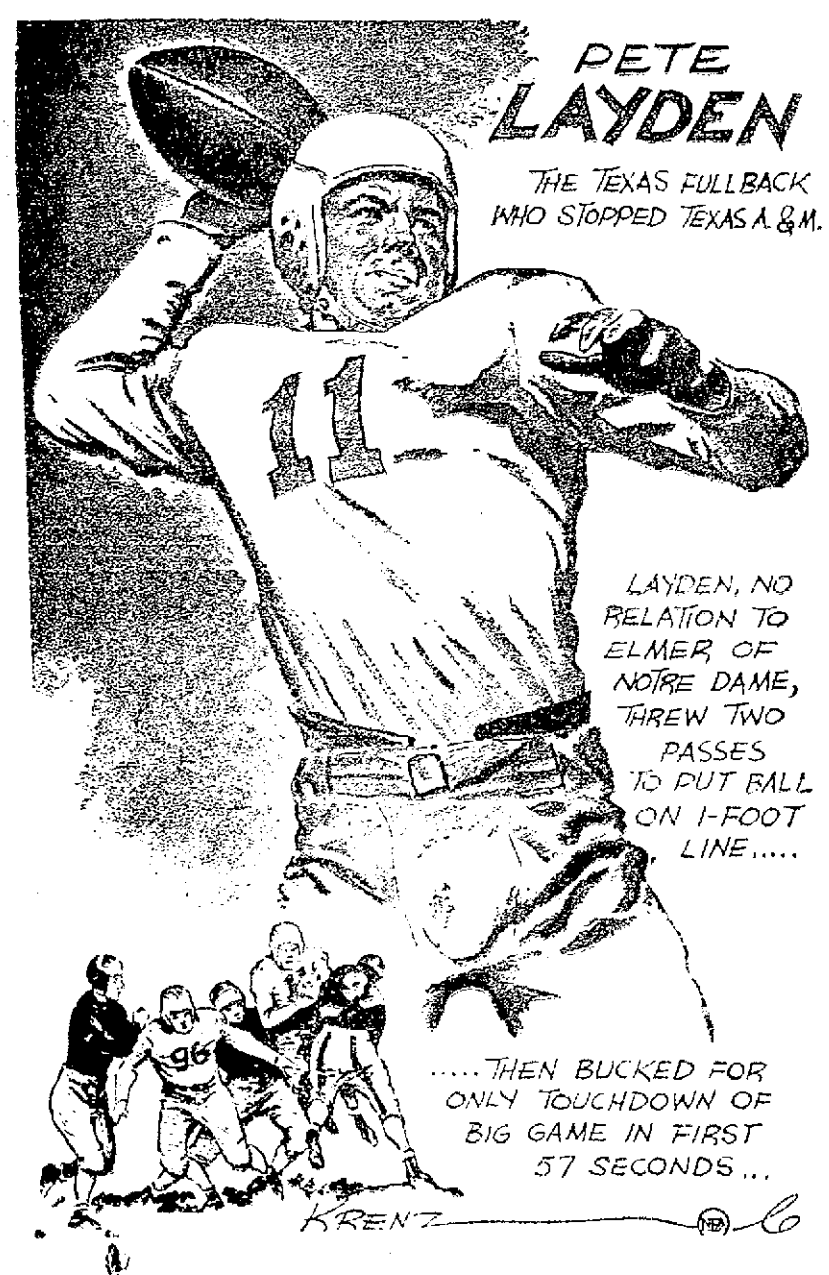

Quick Look Around. Giants and Yankees haven't renewed their broadcasting contracts yet and it's no better than 50-50 that they will. Tomorrow's football prices: Southern California 7-5 over Notre Dame; Southern Methodist 6-5 over Rice; Auburn 2-1 over Villanova; Texas 5-2 over Florida. Peter Sarvon, former featherweight champ, has been called to the colors and leaves with his regiment for a Florida camp. Chicago is the new winter headquarters for old Jack Johnson, the former heavyweight champion. One resignation is usually enough for a football coach to lose his job, but Fred Brice who has been on the job at U. of Maine 20 years, has submitted his six thoughts for the day. My my, how Joe Louis is branching out. First he takes the political stump. Now he'll spread culture as a speaker before the Junior Book Fair of New England. But the Messrs. Al McCoy, Red Burman, et cet mustn't let that fool them.

And the people of Georgia are giving Judge Landis a farm. Well, he ought to be a good one, having had plenty of experience with farm hands.

RIGNEX LOSES TOOTH. Chicago, Dec. 6.—Johnny Rignex is in top shape once more after having an abscessed tooth yanked. The White Sox pitcher was sidelined last season by an infected jaw.

LAYDEN, NO RELATION TO ELMER OF NOIRE DAME, THREW TWO PASSES TO PUT BALL ON 1-FOOT LINE....

..... THEN BUCKED FOR ONLY TOUCHDOWN OF BIG GAME IN FIRST 57 SECONDS....

You may have noted on this page the other evening a brief Associated Press dispatch which announced the resignation of Coach Johnny Reed of McKinley High School of Canton. Well, of course, "resignation" is hardly the word—there is no doubt that "bounced" is probably more to the point. And that ought to put McKinley High on the list of most ungrateful in the nation, for in his five-year tenure, Johnny Reed's teams won 39, lost only seven and tied two. Five of the seven defeats were at the hands of the greatest scholastic football team your agent has ever seen—Massillon. However, we understand that the Canton fans bitterly criticized the Tigers, their bitter rivals. Well, where they're going to locate a mentor who can turn Massillon without playing himself and hiring some other guides, we wouldn't like to guess. Incidentally, it wouldn't surprise us if Reed's successor comes from Pennsylvania's northern tier and from a town not too far from Warren.

Johnny Nelson, sports editor and columnist of the Bradford Era and a demon at statistics, had a rather interesting summary of the Northern District Nine basketball circuit the other morning, in which he pointed out that Warren and Bradford boast the most consistent records over a period of years in the loop. Coach Koepfen's Dragons, who have been in the wheel eight seasons, have won 85 and lost 21, a nice percentage of .798, while the Owls, 11-year tenants, have won 94 and lost 56 for a .627 percentage. Except for Emporium, which has been in and out for a total of five years, all but Warren have played in the loop 11 years. The Blue and White has won four championships and has been a front-runner each year, while Bradford, a second-division outfit each season, revived last season to win a half only to be edged by the locals in the playoff.

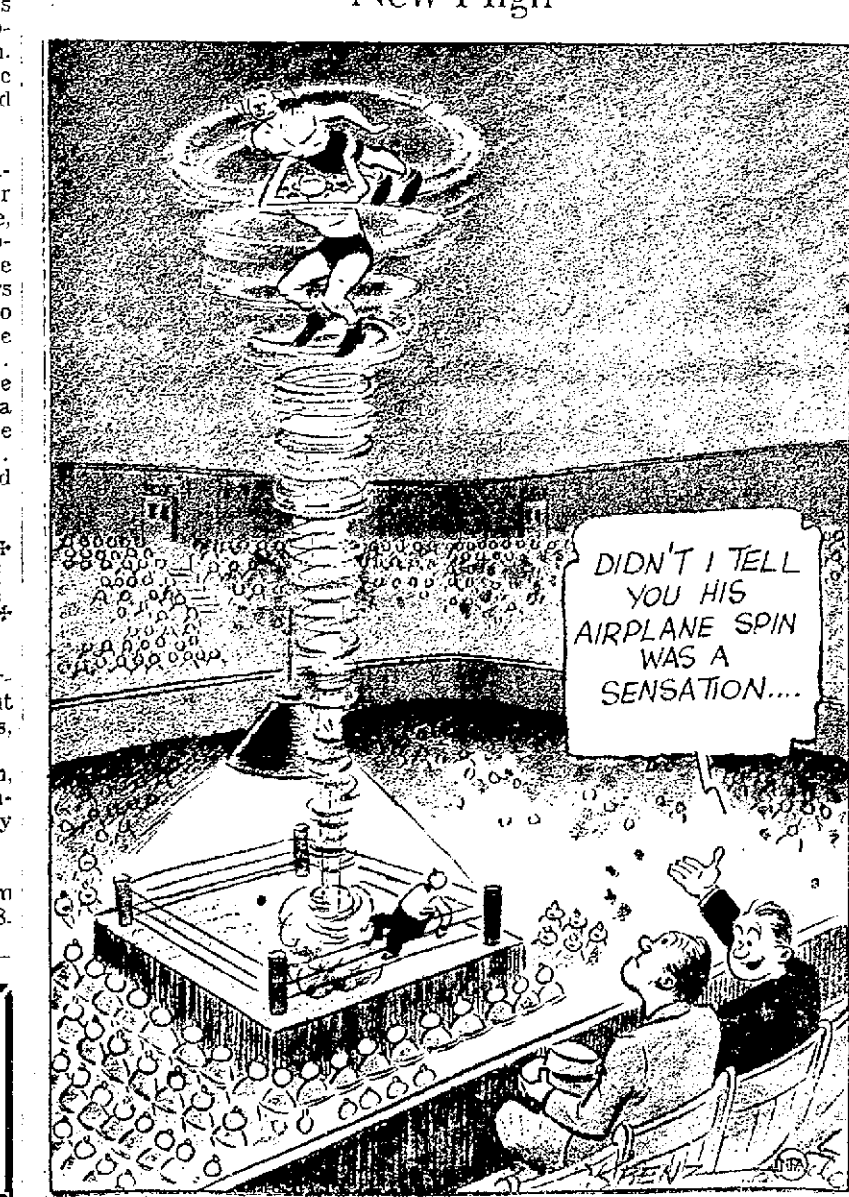

Nelson points out that St. Mary's and Sheffield rank third with .593. The Flying Dutchmen have notched 89 victories and lost 61 while the Wolverines have won 87 and lost 62. Both Bradford and St. Mary's would be even higher had they not suffered losses for having used an ineligible player. The Dutch forfeited all 12 games in 1938 after Johnny Jackson was ruled ineligible, and Bradford gave up eight games in 1936 following the Joe Bizzaro incident. Except for Emporium, Johnsonburg ranks lowest, but the Johnnies are considered favorites with the Dragons and the Owls for this year's flag. Ridgway is fifth in the 11-year standings, with Kane sixth.

Of interest to Warren skiing enthusiasts is an announcement arriving at this desk that "Ski the Americas," a descriptive all-color film is to be presented tonight in the auditorium of the Buffalo State Teachers College. It might not be a bad idea to book the Warren Ski Club winter sports seem destined for a top spot in the local sports world.

December 6, 1920 — About 1,500 fans saw Warren and Jamestown battle to another scoreless tie at Russell Field, but local fans are taking consolation in the fact that the independents spent most of the time in Ariel territory. Tim Burns caught one pass on the goal line, but Referee Hall, of Jamestown, ruled that Tim was standing out of bounds when the catch was made.

December 6, 1930 — The Associated Press' 1930 All-America was released today. Following is the first eleven: Backs, Carville of Notre Dame, Finckert of Southern California, Macaluso of Colgate, and Schwartz of Notre Dame; ends, Fessler of Ohio State and Baker of Northwestern; tackles, Edwards of Washington State and Sington of Alabama; guards, Metzger of Notre Dame and Woodworth of Northwestern; center, Ticknor, Harvard.

OLSON & BJERS ELKS TO HONOR REGISTER FIRST RED JACKETS AT WIN IN LEAGUE DINNER TUESDAY

After dropping its first two clashes, Olson & Bjers' Service Station, quit registered a narrow win in the Y. M. C. A. Class "A" cage circuit last night, rallying in the last period to nose out the Phalanx, 19-18.

F. Kifer was the top man for the winners with eight points with Betty's ten points high for the Phalanx.

The "Y" Colts, led by Ray Moll and R. Scallise, had little difficulty in disposing of the Times-Mirror, 23-22, in the Class "B" encounter. Johnson and Brooks got six points apiece for the Publishers.

Members of the jackets are reminded of an important business meeting to be held Monday night at 7:30 on the second floor of the Warren National Bank building. A program of entertainment will also be provided.

Hospital Plan Argued

Before High Tribunal

Schaffer allowed arguments to continue, however, when Anne X. Alpers, assistant city solicitor in Pittsburgh, pleaded for an opportunity to present the question because Pittsburgh was making up its new budget and a quick decision was of "vital importance."

The city of Pittsburgh and the Allegheny county institution district entered the case as "friends of the court," and asked the high tribunal to reverse a Dauphin county court and allow the state to take over 13 local hospitals in 10 counties.

Four county institution districts—Blair, Somerset, Lackawanna, and Chester had challenged the constitutionality of the 1938 law on grounds it was "special" legislation and an unlawful delegation of power to the department of welfare and the governor. Later, Mercer county joined the suit.

Today, Solicitor E. C. Marianelli of the Luzerne county institution district, informed the court his district wished to join with the five counties who won the favorable decision from the lower court.

Republicans In Senate

Select Gertz As Chief

dict that the committee chairmanships would be selected promptly, but would not venture to name the committee places reserved for Franklin Spencer Edmonds, Montgomery, or O. Jacob Tallman, Lehigh, who also had been mentioned for floor leader.

Gertz, a graduate of Penn State and the University of Pittsburgh law school, is just 40 years old. It will be his lot to round up the party's votes on favored measures, and argue the majority's position when challenged by the Democrats, who hold 18 of the 50 seats.

The Republicans yesterday decided also to retain George Holmes, Philadelphia, as secretary; William J. Ridge, Tioga county, as clerk; and Alex S. Cooper, Harrisburg, librarian.

Ominous Moves in Rumania dreds of persons had fled by boat for Turkey, in addition to those swarming into Hungary.

Bulgaria closed her Rumanian frontier last night in a move seen here as apparently an effort to stem the tide of fleeing Rumanians and to avoid possible disorders.

A Bucharest dispatch said it was explained there that Bulgaria had decided the entire number of emigrants allowed to enter southern Dobruja under the agreement by which that area went to Bulgaria from Rumania had crossed the border.

Fascists Continue Retreat

demolition and fire bombs. The extent of the casualties was not immediately determined, but was termed "fewer than might be expected considering the severity of the attack."

A brief announcement in Rome said that Badoglio had been relieved "at his own request" but gave no other explanation.

However, it came at a time when Italy's invasion of Greece not only had failed but had been thrown into reverse by the hard-driving Greek army, backed by air from Britain.

Reports from Athens today said the Italians were falling back all along the Albanian frontier and that they had put the torch to the southern Albanian towns of Porto Edda and Argirocastro—apparently to prevent war supplies from falling into the hands of the advancing Greeks.

Reports from Porto Edda said the Greeks entered the town early this morning after the Italians cleared out hurriedly, leaving behind virtually all their vast war material assembled there.

They placed the torch to what supplies they could before leaving, however, the Greeks said.

The Greeks found in the harbor an Italian destroyer they declared had been sunk last Wednesday by British bombing planes shortly after it arrived to take out Fascist staff officers.

The Italian position in Porto Edda became untenable, the Greeks explained, when their forces captured the nearby towns of Lykuri and Vyroni.

The main battle in the southern sector, meanwhile, appeared developing in the vicinity of Klisoura, road junction north of Argirocastro.

Ominous new rumblings from Rumania, meanwhile, combined with developments in Albania to center world attention on the Balkans.

On the western warfront German sky raiders continued last night to pound at Britain, centering their main attack on a south coast town.

London had two night alarms, but the German raiders left the capital and the rest of the embattled island in peace shortly after midnight.

Switzerland delivered another protest to Britain over alleged violation of her frontiers by the Royal Air Force, which she accused of flying across the country Wednesday night en route to bomb the northern Italian industrial city of Turin.

State and federal gasoline taxes are by far the heaviest of the special highway taxes, amounting to $36.10 a second, or $2106 a minute. Miscellaneous other motor vehicle taxes, tolls, and fees add another $137 a minute.

Has That "Better Mouse-Trap"

This gadget may be that famed "better mouse-trap" that will cause the world to beat a path to the door of inventor Frank Ford, who is pictured demonstrating it in Los Angeles. Lured up runway into barred death chamber, Mr. Mouse trips a switch which makes two pin-cers seize him by the neck while an 8000-volt current electrocutes him.

Finances of Britain

Discussed

return to the United States of Lord Lothian, British ambassador, when Lothian said that Britain was nearing the end of its financial, as well as material, help.

The cry that loans mean convoys and convoys mean war was raised on Capitol Hill today as S-British financial discussions opened in the treasury department.

Even before Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau received Sir Frederick Phillips, undersecretary of the British treasury, Senator Nye (R-ND) announced that he and a group of colleagues were ready to battle to the bitter end against any attempt to extend financial aid.

Nye told newsmen that this opposition bloc would base its fight on the contention that loans to Britain "mean actual entry into war."

As if to describe the method, he predicted that the proposal of loans for Britain would be accompanied by a proposal for "American naval convoy of British supplies."

Morgenthau said the British financial expert was seeing him, not to make a loan request, but to present factual information on the condition of British finances
